Thank you, Amy. Once again, I appreciate your help. I do feel bad about calling you with everything but it seems everything gravitates toward you. The good thing is that working with your people is so much easier. It's so nice to have sensible people in the office.

Hi Amy and Andrew -

Thanks for your attention to this matter. Looking forward to SHPO's signature on PA. I am posed to run over and pick up myself.

Hi Andrew -

I hope this is your email address.

Just wanted to give you a heads up that the PA that I spoke with you about should have been delivered to the Governor's office before noon today. I got this information from the secretary to the State Historic Preservation Officer (William Aila).

We would appreciate the Governor's quick attention to this matter. We would like to get Mr. Aila's signature on the PA tomorrow. Thanks for your help.
